

Valná hromada ČEZ, a. s.

Karta č. 1 – 500

Shareholder's card

Basic information

What is the purpose of the shareholder's card?

- clear identification of the shareholder
- it has a unique number and it is intended for the specified shareholder to use it at the specified GM of ČEZ, a. s., (it is not necessary to return the card at the end of the GM)
- submission of requests for explanation in compliance with the rules of procedure of the GM of ČEZ, a. s.
- digitalization of processing of the requests for explanation already from the moment they are submitted in the Information center
- the card contains all registrations (including other represented shareholders, as applicable)

Where and when shall the shareholder use the shareholder's card?

The shareholder's card is intended for the identification of a shareholder and must be worn visibly by the shareholders during the entire GM. The shareholder's card is not transferable and may be used solely by the shareholder, to whom it was issued during the registration.

The shareholder's card is used by presenting it to a specified card reader in the following two cases:

- communication with the Information center
- shareholder's oral requests for explanation (by putting the shareholder's card onto the card reader the countdown of the time limit for the shareholder's oral address is activated; by removing the shareholder's card the countdown stops)

It is not possible to submit written or oral requests for explanation without the shareholder's card!

All information regarding the shareholder's card and submission of requests for explanation shall be obtained in the Information center.

What to do in case of a loss of the shareholder's card?

The shareholder's card is issued at the shareholders registration. In case of a loss of the shareholder's card it is necessary to request a new shareholder's card at the shareholders registration.

How to submit requests for explanation under the general meeting's rules of procedure (Article 13 of the Articles of Association of ČEZ, a. s.) at the GM

- 1st and 2nd round are always open for each GM agenda item, whereas there are separate limits for submitting requests for explanation for each round ¹
- limits apply to each shareholder separately
- if a shareholder is registered at the same time as a proxy and/or a statutory body, he/she has a separate limit for each such registration (for a proxy one limit applies to all represented shareholders)

Requests for explanation may be submitted for each GM agenda item under the following conditions:
